Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,

Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun;

Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

“ I was beyond shocked when I got the news that Jeff had passed away. He was my cousin, several years younger than me. I hadn't seen him in many years, but I'll always treasure our childhood memories of building blanket forts, playing hide & seek & always being a fun & friendly boy. He was treasured by his Mom & Dad & the world is a sadder place without him. God speed & Rest In Peace, my love goes with you.

“ I remember meeting Jeff before I built my house here in Cleveland at the Islander back in 2001. We've been friends ever since. He made my transition from Boston to Cleveland easy. He treated my daughter like she was his own. There's so much to say about a man like Jeff, good friend, funny, generous & just an all around great guy. RIP my friend & thank you for your friendship, I love you man.
