“ Everyone should have an Aunt Peggy in their life! Loving, caring, Tremendously young at heart and above all a laughter that would put anyone in stitches. My Aunt was as funny as they came. When I spent nights over my cousins it seemed my Aunt as well as my Uncle would muster some kind of joke or trick to play on us kids. The time I was over with my parents and my Mom asked where her sister was. My Uncle said at the store and she would be back soon. He asked Ralph to go in his bedroom and get his slippers under their bed. He also mentioned that the light was out in the bedroom. So up we went in the room on the floor looking for the slippers when all of a sudden the covers went flying off the bed and a yell came from the gorilla that was under those covers. Well we were out of that room like a bat out hell and flew down the steps! Uncle Ralph and my parents were in stitches in the living room as Aunt Peggy came down dressed in her gorilla outfit. Yes my Aunt Peggy always loved to have a good laugh. I will miss her seemingly perpetual smile! Love you always Aunt Peggy

“ My grandmother was one of the kindest & most selfless individuals I have ever met. As a child, I would visit every summer & winter vacation - and even into her elderly age, I recall her finding the energy for charity work, such as volunteering at hospitals. Those that knew her, know that she was a very religious woman and that Catholicism was central to her beliefs. I vividly remember her telling me something as a child that resonated with me for the rest of my life - that "it isn't easy getting into Heaven." I always took that as actions speak louder than words & if wish to reap the benefits of eternal bliss in the afterlife, than you essentially have to walk the walk, not just talk the talk. And that is exactly what my grandmother did, which is why I'll always remember her as the kind, loving, giving, & caring woman that she was. I believe she made it
